

Constellation Systems Projects Office (PTC)

To provide overall management of all GRC activities supporting Constellation Systems. The Office works with GRC performing and supporting organizations, other NASA Centers, HQ, other government agencies, industry, and academia to assist in managerial programmatic functions for and to develop state-of-the-art technologies to enable transportation systems including the Crew Exploration Vehicle and supporting In-Space and Surface systems.

